Headteacher's Comments

Please make note of our upcoming important dates and events

Dear Parents and Carers,

It seems strange writing this on a Friday morning, knowing the children won't be in.

School is closed today for whole staff training in Read Write Inc. We are relaunching our phonics scheme & are so excited about it!

Miss Brownsord and I spent the day in Leeds on Tuesday with the RWI team too.

I was also in Carlisle on Wednesday at RE moderation, showing off our amazing work.

On Thursday I was inspired at the Headteacher conference. Frank Cottrall-Boyce was the guest speaker. I'm hoping he will take up my invitation to visit school next year. The children will love him!

Schools been busy as usual this week, there's been the usual wonderful buzz around in all the classrooms.

The Explorers have been enjoying their seaside topic, making some beautiful collages. They've also been investigating shadows in science.

KS2 enjoyed another fab water sports session on Wednesday. In class this week the children performed a drama where they were either Anglo Saxons or Britons, they were asked what their thoughts and feelings were when the Anglo Saxons entered Britain.

Our after school clubs are popular as ever. Circus club was a hit. The children enjoyed practicing their skills in the sunshine. Such fun!

I'm very happy to share the news that after a morning of interviews, we have successfully recruited a wonderful teacher for the Explorers class from September. Mrs Sarah Meyerhoff will be joining us after the summer holidays. She has taught in a number of schools and brings with her a wealth of experience and knowledge from both EYFS & KS1. The children loved meeting her on Monday and thoroughly enjoyed her lesson.

Mrs Meyerhoff is in school today, on the phonics training day and we will be planning a 'move up day' for the children to have another opportunity to meet her. I am certain she will be an asset to Team Cuthbert's!

Please keep an eye on the calendar as there is lots going on in school over the next few weeks.

Thanks for your support, enjoy the weekend,

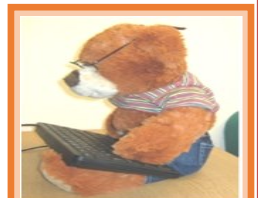

Mrs Bone
